Accuracy of information

Your policy or the policy you are applying for is a consumer insurance contract and the duty below applies to you.

Your duty to take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation

About this application and your duty

When you apply for life insurance, we conduct a process called underwriting. It's how we decide whether we can cover you, and if so on what terms and at what cost.

We will ask questions we need to know the answers to. These will be about your personal circumstances, such as your health and medical history, occupation, income, lifestyle, pastimes, and current and past insurance. The information you give us in response to our questions is vital to our decision.

Replacing your existing insurance

The duty to take reasonable care

When applying for insurance, there is a legal duty to take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation to the insurer before the contract of insurance is entered into.

A misrepresentation is a false answer, an answer that is only partially true, or an answer which does not fairly reflect the truth.

This duty also applies when extending or making changes to existing insurance, and reinstating insurance.

If you do not meet your duty

If you do not meet your legal duty, this can have serious impacts on your insurance. Your cover could be avoided (treated as if it never existed), or its terms may be changed. This may also result in a claim being declined or a benefit being reduced.

Please note that there may be circumstances where we later investigate whether the information given to us was true. For example, we may do this when a claim is made.

Guidance for answering our questions

You are responsible for the information provided to us. When answering our questions, please:

- think carefully about each question before you answer. If you are unsure about any question, we are here to help and you can contact us,
- answer every question,
- answer truthfully, accurately and completely. If you are unsure about whether you should include information, please include it,

- review your application carefully before it is submitted. If someone else helped prepare your application (for example, your adviser), please check every answer (and if necessary, make any corrections) before the application is submitted, and
- you must not assume that we will contact your doctor for any medical information. If you are unsure about whether you should include information or not, please include it.

Your duty to take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation continues until the time your insurance cover starts. The duty applies when you answer questions in your application and whenever we obtain more information from you.

If you need help

It's important that you understand this information and the questions we ask. Ask us or your adviser for help if you have difficulty understanding the process of buying insurance or answering our questions.

If you're having difficulty due to a disability, understanding English or for any other reason, we're here to help and can provide additional support for anyone who might need it. If you want, you can have a support person you trust with you.

What can we do if the duty is not met?

If the person who answers our questions does not take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation, there are different remedies that may be available to us. These are set out in the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth). These are intended to put us in the position we would have been in if the duty had been met.

For example we may:

- avoid the cover (treat it as if it never existed);
- vary the amount of the cover; or
- vary the terms of the cover.

Whether we can exercise one of these remedies depends on a number of factors, including:

- whether the person who answered our questions took reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation. This depends on all of the relevant circumstances;
- what we would have done if the duty had been met - for example, whether we would have offered cover, and if so, on what terms;
- whether the misrepresentation was fraudulent; and
- in some cases, how long it has been since the cover started.

Before we exercise any of these remedies, we will explain our reasons, how to respond and provide further information, including what you can do if you disagree.

Information about genetic tests

If you have had a genetic test, you only need to disclose this to us if your total combined insurance cover (including cover under super or held with other life insurers as well as cover applied for) will be more than any one of the following:

- $500,000 life cover, or
- $500,000 Total and permanent disability cover (TPD), or
- $200,000 critical illness (trauma) cover, or
- $4,000 a month income protection cover, salary continuance cover or business expenses cover.

If you have had a favourable (negative) genetic test result you can provide this information regardless of the amount of cover applied for.

Exclusion periods for Critical Illness

If you are replacing Critical Illness type insurance held with us, the exclusion periods that apply to the critical conditions under the new MLC policy will be waived to the extent that these conditions are covered under the insurance being replaced.

4E Rollover from external super fund – enduring authority

Only complete this section if you want to pay your premium by an ongoing annual deduction from your external super fund account. Please note you can only request one MLC Insurance (Super) policy to be paid by rollover by any one external fund.

This section is a direction to the trustee of your nominated external super fund to rollover funds to the MLC Super Fund and a direction to the Trustee to apply those funds in payment of premiums for your insurance policy.

Please read – Important information

- The member must be the same for both the MLC Insurance (Super) policy and the external super fund account.
- If the rollover request is rejected by the external super fund for any reason, the Trustee will request alternative payment details from you, otherwise the policy will lapse.
- An amount equal to the annual premium payable will be requested as a rollover from your external super fund account, proximate to the annual anniversary date for your insurance policy. We will notify you of the amount of annual premium required prior to requesting the rollover from your nominated external super fund.
- You agree that if the Fund or the Trustee change at any time, then this enduring rollover authority applies to authorise the trustee and administrator of the successor fund, to continue the ongoing annual deduction from your external super account to pay your premium.

Your responsibility

- It is your responsibility to determine the impact the rollover may have on any entitlement you have in the external super fund.
- Please ensure the account balance with the external super fund is sufficient to allow for the rollover of the required amount and ensure you meet any minimum balance requirements of the external super fund.
- You authorise the deduction from your external account by the trustee of the external fund any applicable fees or charges which may be payable as a result of the rollover.
- You discharge the trustee of the external super fund from any further liability in respect of rollover benefit once the amount is transferred to the MLC Super Fund.

Termination of arrangements

- You must notify the Trustee in writing if you wish to terminate the ongoing annual rollover arrangement. Until such time, this direction and authority remains valid.
- The Trustee may at its discretion or as may be required by law or regulations terminate arrangements for annual rollover of funds from a nominated external super fund.
- The Trustee may be able to claim a tax deduction for the premium it pays for your insurance and, at its discretion, may pass some or all of the benefit of this tax deduction to you by reducing the amount of the rollover required to meet the premium, when the rollover comes from a taxed source.
